ADDENDUM TO STANDARD WORK ORDER TERMS AND CONDITIONS
The addional or supplemental terms and condions of this Addendum shall apply to all Work Orders. In the event of any conflict between these Addendum terms and the Standard Work Order Terms and Condions, the Addendum terms shall control.
Scope. A Buyer may procure Provider's services for Buyer or its a?liates; or alternavely for Buyer's managed services client including any of its a?liates (a "Client"), in each case as set forth in a Work Order. Provider is an independent contractor and not an employee or agent of Buyer or Client. Client is a third-party beneficiary to these Work Order Terms.
Acceptance or Rejecon of a Provider. If a Provider responds with acceptance of a Work Order and Work Order Terms in the Plaorm, there is no binding agreement unless the Buyer accepts such Provider's o?er or countero?er in the Plaorm. Mutual acceptance occurs once the Provider is informed of the Buyer's acceptance via the Plaorm. It is within Buyer's sole discreon to accept or reject a Provider. These Work Order Terms establish a non-exclusive relaonship. Buyer may engage any other providers to perform services as it sees fit.
Payments; Expenses. All payments for services rendered and properly invoiced by a Provider for the time submitted and approved by Buyer in the Platform for the services will be facilitated by Field Nation on behalf of a Buyer. Buyer and its Clients are not obligated to issue any payments to Provider or its personnel. Unless expressly otherwise stated in a Work Order, Provider is responsible for its and its personnel's travel, living, or other expenses incurred in associaon with its performance of the services. If Buyer agrees to be responsible for any travel expenses, then Provider must comply with Buyer's travel policy that is in e?ect at the me of the expense. Buyer may update the travel policy from me to me and a copy of the policy is available upon request.
Addional Reps & Warranes by Provider.
1.Provider's profile, inclusive of statements of its qualificaons, experience, experse, skills and cerficaons, on the Plaorm is complete, up to date and accurate such that Buyer or its designated agents can verify same based on the informaon provided by Provider.
2.If Provider offers its personnel to provide services, Provider will be solely responsible for: (a) the hire, tenure, and conditions of employment of its personnel that provide services, including their respective hours of work and rates of pay; (b)keeping and maintaining all records or reports as required by law regarding compensation of Provider's personnel; (c) providing valid workers' compensation coverage for Provider's personnel as required by law; and (d) otherwise doing all things necessary to fully comply with all federal, state and local laws, ordinances and regulations in regard to Provider's personnel, including but not limited to federal immigration laws.
3.Provider agrees to deliver tangible property to a Buyer or a Client, as directed or instructed by the Buyer. Provider will not deliver to a Client any materials or Intellectual Property owned by a third party unless it first obtains Buyer's writen approval either under a Work Order or other wring signed by both pares that references the relevant Work Order. The approval must specifically idenfy the third-party materials (e.g., nature, form, and owner).
4.Provider is responsible for any loss or damage to any Buyer or Client equipment (a) that it procures and supplies to Buyer or Client per the relevant Work Order, and/or (b) resulting from its errors or omissions.Privileged and Confidenal Informaon
5.If a Work Order contains a time schedule for completion of a service task or delivery of materials, then Provider must complete the tasks or provide the materials in accordance with the time schedule.
6.The use of any Work Product delivered to any Buyer and/or Client will not violate any law or regulation, including without limitation any data privacy or data protection laws or regulations, or violate or infringe upon the rights of any other party, including, without limitation, contractual rights, intellectual property rights, publicity and privacy rights and the rights against libel, defamation and slander.
7. Provider shall, and will ensure that its personnel, obey Buyer's or Client's instrucons and direcons issued while they are on Buyer's or Client's premises.
8. Neither Provider nor its personnel are eligible to parcipate in any of Buyer's or any Client's employee benefit plans or similar programs. Service Provider must advise and fully inform all its personnel that provide services under a Work Order that they are Provider's employees or contractors, and that Buyer and Client are not liable to them as an employer or principal in any amount for wages, benefits, claims or causes of acon arising out of or relang to their services. As used in these Work Order Terms, "wages" has the meaning set forth the applicable labor laws, as modified from me to me.
9. Provider will not introduce Malicious Code into Buyer's or Client's computer systems and network infrastructure as part of the services. "Malicious Code" means a virus, back door, trapdoor, spyware, me bomb, trojan horse, worm, drop dead device, virus, other harmful software code routine, or equipment intended or designed, among other things to; permit access to or use of Client's or its A?liate's soware, computer system or data other than as expressly authorized by Client; or disable, damage, corrupt, erase, disrupt, or impair the normal operaon of Client's or its A?liate's soware, computer systems or data.
10. For all work performed by Provider for Client, Provider will adhere to all Client hardware, soware, configuraon and installaon standards. Provider will also observe all Client IT, operaonal and related business policies and processes including, but not limited to informaon protecon policies, fixed asset policies, incident management, request management, change management and applicable documentaon for network device builds. Provider's personnel will be subject to Client's standards of business conduct, including the dress code. Training regarding the Client requirements will be provided during the onboarding (or check-in) process.

11. Provider will comply with (a) Buyer's Business Partner Code of Business Conduct, the latest copy of which is available at: https://www.unisys.com/informaon-for-unisys-suppliers/business-partner-code-of-business-conduct/; and (b) all applicable an-slavery and human tra?cking laws, statutes and regulaons in force in any relevant jurisdicon such as the UN Universal Declaraon of Human Rights, as well as Buyer's an-slavery and human tra?cking statement as published in Buyer's Code of Ethics (https://www.unisys.com/about-unisys/compliance-and-ethics/) and Buyer's Business Partner Code of Business Conduct (https://www.unisys.com/informaon-for-unisys-suppliers/business-partner-code-of-business-conduct/).
Warranty Disclaimer. Each party hereby disclaims all implied, statutory or other warranty not expressly made in these Work Order Terms or a Work Order, including the implied warranes of merchantability and fitness for a parcular purpose.
Addional Insurance. During the term and for a period of no less than two years following the termination of these Work Order Terms and the relevant Work Order, Provider shall also maintain the followingPrivileged and Confidenal Informaon insurance coverages set forth below, or such higher amounts or additional coverage as may be set forth in a Work Order:

1.If applicable, Workers Compensaon Insurance, including employer liability, in an amount not less than $1,000,000 per occurrence;
2.Commercial General Liability insurance coverage with combined policy limits of at least $1,000,000 for bodily injury, death or property damage arising from any one occurrence, which must be endorsed to name Buyer and its affiliates as additional insureds;
3.Professional Liability insurance in an amount not less than $1,000,000, which must be endorsed to name Buyer and its affiliates as additional insureds;
4.A Crime Policy in an amount not less than $1,000,000 that must include employee dishonesty and fidelity coverage for all Provider employees with a coverage extension for property of others, which must be endorsed to name Buyer and its affiliates as additional insureds; and,
5.Automobile Liability insurance coverage covering all owned, hired, and non-owned automobiles with combined single limit of at least $1,000,000, which must be endorsed to name Buyer and its affiliates as additional insureds.
Provider must furnish to Buyer certificates of insurance that demonstrate compliance with these requirements. If Provider is expressly permitted to use subcontractors under a Work Order, it must require its subcontractors to maintain similar coverage and to provide, upon request, certificates of insurance to Buyer; nevertheless, Provider shall remain responsible for its subcontractors.
Provider hereby waives and releases any and all claims against Buyer, Client and their respective affiliates, their governors, directors, managers, officers, employees, and agents for damages, costs, expenses, or other liability resulting from an occurrence or risk for which Provider is required to provide insurance pursuant to these Work Order Terms.
A waiver of subrogaon applies in favor of Unisys, its subsidiaries, a?liates and customers.
Confidenality. A Buyer may, by any means or media, disclose informaon to a Provider about Buyer's, its Clients', and their respecve a?liates' past, present, future or prospecve members, insureds and customers; vendors, agents or other service providers; business plans and strategies; finances; organizaon and operaons; sales, markeng, financial, insurance, membership and other pracces, processes, methods, data, and results; computer soware and programs (including specificaons, object code and source code); product and service costs, prices and rates; technology; products, systems, tools, or services; know-how, or personal informaon, which the Buyer or its Clients consider to be confidenal, personal or proprietary (the "Confidenal Informaon"). Confidenal Informaon also includes informaon obtained directly or indirectly from Client's and its a?liate's members, insureds, vendors or customers. Upon termination of these Work Order Terms or a Work Order, or at the disclosing party's request, the receiving party must immediately deliver to the disclosing party all materials in its possession or under its control containing Confidential Information.

shall be governed by the laws of the jurisdicon of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, USA in which the Buyer resides. The United Naons Convenon on Contracts for Internaonal Sale of Goods does not apply. The pares irrevocably consent to the exclusive jurisdicon of state and federal courts of the courts of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the Eastern District of Pennsylvania for any legal acon arising out of these Work Order Terms or a Work Order.
Terminaon for Convenience. Buyer may terminate these Work Order Terms and/or any Work Order at will, for any reason and for no reason, immediately upon noce to Provider. If Buyer terminates, then, as Provider's sole and exclusive remedy for such termination, Buyer will approve Provider's submitted hours and Field Nation will pay Provider for same, to the extent not previously paid, and reimburse Provider for approved expenses (if any) through the effective date of termination. Upon completion of the Services or at the earlier request of Buyer, Provider must promptly deliver to Buyer all Confidential Information, containing or relating to the services and Work Product provided by Provider.

No Circumvenon; Non-Interference. Provider shall do all work for registered Buyers directly through the Field Naon Plaorm only (or private network, as applicable), and shall not communicate with Buyer, or Buyers' Clients, outside of the Plaorm for the purpose of avoiding any obligaons under these Work Order Terms, including the obligaon to pay the Field Naon Fee. For the term of these Work Order Terms and any Work Order and one year thereaer, Provider shall not directly or indirectly: (a) solicit or accept employment or contract services from any Field Naon, Buyer or Buyer's Clients about whom Provider learned from the Buyer or through the Plaorm without the writen consent of Field Naon, except for services to be performed pursuant to Work Orders via the Plaorm; or (b) take any acon which interferes with the relaonship between Field Naon and Buyer or Buyer's Clients.

No Subcontracng. Unless expressly permited by Buyer under a Work Order, Provider shall not subcontract all or any poron of the services to any third party. If a Work Order permits subcontracng, Provider shall be liable for its subcontractor's acts or omissions in the performance of its obligaons under these Work Order Terms and the relevant Work Order, to the same extent as an employer is responsible for the acts or omissions of its employees.

No Use of Marks.Except to the extent expressly authorized under a Work Order, Provider is not authorized to use a Buyer's, Client's or any of their respecve a?liate's company name, trademark, service mark, slogan or logo and nothing in these Work Order Terms grants or is deemed to grant to Provider any right, tle or interest in any such marks.

Third Party Beneficiaries. Except for Buyer's Clients, there shall not be any other third-party beneficiaries under these Work Order Terms or any Work Order.
